

If you do not already receive Food Stamps and you were living in one of the following parishes on August 29, 2008, you may be eligible to receive Disaster Food Stamps:

Acadia	Lafayette	St. Landry
Allen	Lafourche	St. Martin
Ascension	Livingston	St. Mary
Assumption	Orleans	St. Tammany
Avoyelles	Plaquemines	Tangipahoa
East Baton Rouge	Pointe Coupee	Terrebonne
E. Feliciana	Rapides	Vermilion
Evangeline	St. Bernard	West Baton Rouge
Iberia	St. Charles	W. Feliciana
Iberville	St. James
Jefferson	St. John

To determine your potential eligibility:

Add your total combined income expected to be received from August 29, 2008 – September 27, 2008 to your available resources (cash on hand and all accessible bank accounts).

If the total is at or below the “Disaster Income Limit” listed below for your household size, you may be eligible for Disaster Food Stamps.

Household size	Disaster Income Limit	Maximum Allotment
1	2,079	162
2	2,707	298
3	3,108	426
4	3,663	542
5	4,033	643
6	4,504	772
7	4,770	853
8	5,183	975
Each Additional Household Member	413	122

This is only a guide to determining your eligibility and does not guarantee eligibility. Only an eligibility worker can make a determination of your eligibility.

Your application is subject to review by the Department of Social Services and the United States Department of Agriculture - Office of Inspector General.

If you intentionally conceal information or provide false information to obtain food stamps, you may be disqualified from the Food Stamp Program or be subject to criminal prosecution. You will also be required to repay all ineligible benefits.
